ACCOUNTABILITY

Which VOX core value resonates with you most, and why?

Accountability, especially the ownership aspect.

New things that you would like to learn.

How to go to sleep early and not treat it as a philosophical dilemma and how to read ingredient labels without conducting a forensic analysis

What do you like to do when you are not at work?

Walking endlessly and painting oversized canvases – a place where my ideas are allowed to be as big and chaotic as they want.

What destination do you hope to visit one day?

A magical place called “My Future Kitchen Pantry” – where everything is perfectly organized, labeled, healthy, and somehow restocks itself without me lifting a finger.

What are your favorite foods?

Warm bread straight from the oven (I will break any diet for it) and my homemade Armenian dishes that somehow taste better at midnight.
